LIVING ROOT BRIDGE

Welcome to Living Root Bridge, a BC-based consultancy founded by Dr. Jas Uppal-Hershorn. Our workshops, programs, coaching and mentoring support educators to advance equity.

Jas brings over two decades of experience leading educators through change and co-designing inclusive curriculums in schools and universities in British Columbia, England and India. She shares the approach and insights she's used to build teacher capacity through self-reflexivity, mentorship and collaborative inquiry - co-creating learning environments which invite and support people of all backgrounds.

"our encounters with difference are an opportunity to transform our relationships with one another and
reimagine systems."
